WISEHART'S FAMOUS CUSHION MUMS

Showy, dwarf varieties 15 to 18 inches tall used for edging, borders, rock gardens, in front of taller varieties, etc. Established plants bloom early 'till frost.

Why not try a few of these low growing cushion mums in pots? One plant in a six-inch pot or a gallon tin can makes an unequalled pot plant showered with bloom in the fall.

YELLOW SUPREME —

One of the most hardy and showy of all the yellow cushion varieties. An outstanding plant. An excellent shade of soft, medium yellow so delightful to all.

BRONZE BEAUTY—

Virtually covered with hundreds of rich, bronze flowers. A color all of its own which blends well either in the garden or bouquet.

FROSTY MORN —

White cushion variety virtually amassed with bloom tinged with pale pink. White flowers add much to either garden or vase. Always include white in your planting.

DAZZLING EMBERS —

Sparkling red blooms cover this compact plant from crown to ground. This little eighteen-inch bush makes a wide spread and should prove attractive to all who enjoy a brilliant, dazzling red.

PEGGY O'NEILL —

Semi-double, charming pink. Long lasting beauty for weeks. No collection or the garden is not complete without several of these pink beauties to complete the color scheme.
